RE: 1983 Annual Report of the
Arizona Department of Insurance

It is my distinct privilege, for the first time as Director of Insurance, to submit for your review the Annual Report of the Arizona Department of Insurance. This Seventy-First Annual Report is comprised of (1) a summary of the Department's organization and significant activities during the past calendar year; (2) a brief explanation of legislation proposed for 1985; and (3) a compilation of financial summaries of insurers licensed by the State of Arizona.

With the exception of a change from fiscal to calendar year reporting, the format of this Annual Report is essentially identical to the report submitted to you last year. The financial information regarding insurers is presented in what I believe to be a concise and understandable manner designed to assist the reader in locating key information.

As described in some detail in the Seventieth Annual Report of the Department of Insurance, the most significant issue facing not only the Arizona Department of Insurance, but insurance regulators across the country is that of insurer insolvency. Most knowledgeable insurance analysts anticipate that the ultimate result of the last several years intense competition and corresponding rate reductions will be an increase in both the number and severity of major insurer insolvencies.

Notwithstanding this rather dim forecast, Arizona has thus far been able to avoid following what appears to be the national trend. During calendar year 1983 the Department took regulatory action -- including receiverships, reinstatements, revocations, suspensions and supervisions in the case of twenty-five insurers as compared to thirty-three such actions during fiscal year 1982-83. Part of this very positive result can be attributed to the Department's efforts to anticipate and deal with potential financial difficulties before they require drastic regulatory action. Chester Flaxmayer, Special Assistant to the Director, Roy Gill, CFE, the Department's Chief Examiner, and William Robinson, FCA, MAAA, the Department's Chief Actuary, are part of a Department team which regularly works with troubled companies in conjunction with the State Guaranty Funds to protect Arizona policyholders.

Despite everyone's best efforts, however, there will be insolvencies and it is the role of this Department to maintain an aggressive and innovative posture to insure that the policyholding public is adequately protected. The public will have an immense stake in the results of insurance regulation over the next few years. While this poses an enormous challenge, I am confident that the Deparment will be successful in its efforts to protect the interest of the Arizona insurance consumer while at the same time contributing to a healthy and prosperous insurance industry in the State of Arizona.

I. Department Divisions

The Insurance Department is organized into six divisions. As of December 31, 1983, the divisions were Property and Casualty and Licensing, Life and Disability, Examinations and Admissions, Consumer Affairs and Investigations, Hearings and Administration. Each division chief reports directly to the Director and is charged with overseeing his or her specific responsibilities as prescribed by the Arizona Insurance Laws and as assigned by the Director. The Director is assisted in the administration of the Department by Mr. Chester Flaxmayer, the Special Assistant to the Director.

A. Property and Casualty Division

The Property and Casualty Division was headed by Deloris E. Williamson, Chief Deputy Director, during the calendar year 1983. The Division was responsible for administering Arizona's property and casualty rating laws, as well as overseeing the regulation of qualified service companies, surplus lines brokers, third party insurance administrators, and insurance agents' licensing.

The Division's workload throughout the past year was substantial and included preparation of two major publications--the Automobile Premium Comparison and the Personal Lines Complaint Ratios. Both had a similar purpose, to assist the public in its purchase of coverage and in its selection of an insurance company.

The Auto Premium Comparison compared the premiums of 42 insurance companies writing over 90% of the private passenger automobile insurance in Arizona. The results encouraged consumers to comparison shop for their insurance, demonstrating a premium range from $138.00 to $378.00 for the same hypothetical risk.

Published annually since 1979, the Complaint Ratio brings to public attention those companies against which numerous complaints were received. This publication also serves to assist the Department in helping to assess individual company performance during the year, in identifying problems which require regulatory action, in serving as a deterrent to "would be" offenders, in targeting candidates for market conduct examinations, and in assisting the Department in the effective utilization of its limited manpower. The preponderance of complaints dealt with claims handling activities involving unsatisfactory settlement offers, denial of claims, and payment problems. Those companies which exceeded a complaint ratio of 1.00 per 1,000 policies were automatic candidates for a Market Conduct Examination.

The Division is also responsible for overseeing the Department's Market Conduct Examination Program which involves the review of company rating, underwriting, claims, and marketing activities. As a result of examinations conducted in 1983, for example, a total of $388,719.43 was refunded to Arizona policyholders whose insurance companies had failed to include taxes and fees in the settlement of first party automobile total loss claims.

The Division also assisted in the negotiation of two consent orders relative to workers' compensation dividend abuses, whereby insurance companies were reducing, withholding, or delaying dividends to those policyholders failing to renew with the companies. Both orders resulted in fines and an order to cease and desist from the practice. Ultimately, the companies were also required to return the dividends to the policyholders.

During 1983 the Division also reviewed and processed over 10,000 form and rate filings, prepared several technical exhibits, and assisted the Consumer Affairs Division in complex investigations. Division personnel also chaired or participated in advisory committees working on a statewide anti-arson task force, an NAIC Complaint Handlers Manual, and a records management committee.

The Property and Casualty Division includes the Licensing Section supervised by Shirley Wutz, Licensing Supervisor. This Section has overall responsibility for licensing all insurance agents, brokers, solicitors, and adjusters in the State. During 1983, the Section issued 7,486 new licenses and renewed 12,314, bringing the total number of all agents licensed in Arizona at year end to 30,758. Additionally, the Section was responsible for the administration of the license examination for title agents and adjusters.

B. Life and Disability Division

During 1983 the Life and Disability Division was supervised by Ms. Andrea Lazar, the Assistant Director. This Division has responsibility for reviewing life and health insurance policy forms and advertising materials as well as rate filings for individual health insurance coverages. In addition to clerical support, the Division staff includes two insurance analysts who review material submitted for review by the insurance companies and other related entities. During 1983 the Division continued to develop measures designed to reduce paperwork and provide insurers with greater flexibility while at the same time continuing regulatory protection in those areas where problems have arisen.

The Deregulation Order of 1982 has reduced the number of policy forms filed in 1983 significantly. The Division reviewed and approved 10,657 policy forms and disapproved 1,023 policy forms in 1983.

The Division continued to provide a representative to serve as the Department's liaison with the Senior Citizens Health Insurance Advisory Committee, a body established to focus upon the health insurance problems of the elderly.

In 1983 the Division completed a survey of the cost of term life insurance products available to Arizona insurance consumers.

In addition, on behalf of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, the Division conducted surveys of Association members relating to Medicare supplement consumer information and out-of-state trusts. It is likely the results will help the NAIC and other states to develop statutes or rules to deal with this difficult problem.

C. Consumer Affairs and Investigations Division

The Department's Consumer Affairs and Investigations Division is headed by Mr. T. E. Morales. The Division is responsible for carrying out the Department's consumer assistance program and conducting investigations for possible administrative hearings or litigation regarding violations of the insurance laws. Included in this Division is the Tucson office of the Department.

During the past year, the Division received 5,449 written complaints and handled 96,621 telephone calls of which 80,354 were complaints or inquiries from Arizona policyholders and claimants. The Division, acting as an informal arbiter and mediator, was able to successfully assist Arizona policyholders in obtaining settlements with their insurers in an amount of $4,607,983. Moreover, the Division operated a statewide consumer hot line (1-800-352-5485) so that policyholders outside of Maricopa and Pima Counties could contact the Department when they had questions or problems relating to insurance. The hot line generated 3,629 telephone calls from Arizona communities during the past year.

The Division also assisted in the distribution and dissemination of the Department's consumer information materials to the public, including auto and homeowners premium comparisons and the personal lines complaint ratios, as well as other informative materials and brochures. As part of the Department's overall consumer assistance program, the Division provided speakers to public schools and interested groups on a range of topics including insurance claim practices, auto and health insurance problems, and the role of the Department.

It should also be pointed out that as part of its public assistance role, the Division dispatched three investigators to assist residents living along the Colorado River during the flooding that took place during June and July of this year. Additionally, the Division provided five investigators to assist residents living in Greenlee, Graham, Cochise, Santa Cruz, Pima, Pinal, Gila and Maricopa Counties during the heavy flooding that took place in October of 1983.

The Consumer Affairs and Investigations Division also oversees the administration of the Unfair Claims Settlement Practices Act and the Department's regulations adopted pursuant to the Act. The Division issued 325 citations for unfair claim practices against insurers. Nine companies were targeted for market conduct examinations relating to their claim practices. One hundred fifty-eight investigations of agents, brokers and adjusters were conducted which resulted in fifty-three cases being referred for hearing or other Department action.

D. Examinations and Admissions Division

Of paramount importance, with respect to the Department's role in monitoring insurer solvency and protecting policyholders from companies in an unsound financial condition, is the Examinations and Admissions Division headed by Mr. Roy E. Gill, CFE. The Division's 18 field examiners, who are independent contractors, conducted financial examinations of 177 domestic insurers during 1983. Moreover, the Division prescreened and admitted 72 new Arizona insurers and 55 foreign and alien insurers. As of December 31, 1983, Arizona had 1,983 licensed insurers authorized to transact business in this State which included 646 domestic insurers.

The Division also has the responsibility for the collection of premium taxes and fees, collecting and remitting over $76.3 million to the State General Fund and other agencies and retirement funds in 1983. It should be noted that premium tax collections were substantially augmented by quarterly tax collections instituted this year. By way of contrast, the Department's entire budget for the same period of time was approximately $1.5 million.

E. Hearing Division

The Hearing Division is responsible for all proceedings, decisions and rulings of the Department of Insurance. The Division is headed by its Chief Hearing Officer, Mr. Jeffrey P. Larson. Agents and insurance companies are afforded the opportunity to appear and defend in disciplinary proceedings conducted by the Hearing Division. In addition, the law requires that acquisitions, mergers and withdrawals may be approved only after public hearings on petitions therefor. During the past calendar year, the Division conducted one hundred seventy-six hearings. The licenses of thirty-one insurance agents were either suspended or revoked, and the certificates of authority of twenty-four insurance companies were suspended or revoked. In addition, the Division prepared and issued orders denying the issuance of licenses to fifteen individuals.

In July, 1983, a change in the investment laws for domestic insurers became effective, which laws broadened the investment opportunities for domestic insurers. In connection with that law, this Division held a public hearing and prepared an order regarding investment grade ratings for corporate obligations and preferred, preference or guaranteed stock.

II. 1984 Insurance Legislation

The 1984 Regular Session of the Arizona Legislature enacted several significant insurance bills which are briefly described in a circular letter distributed to the insurance industry and other interested persons on May 23, 1984. A copy of that summary appears hereafter.

III. Proposed 1985 Legislation

The Department has always been active and a front-runner in the development of important and innovative legislation which appropriately regulates the various facets of the business of insurance. The Department is presently studying the impact on industry, the Department and consumers of several major proposals, many of which it will recommend for the 1985 Regular Session of the 37th Legislature.

The Department will again this year propose the establishment of a health insurance pool for uninsurables. There is a gap within the health care system for coverage for the non-indigent uninsurable who has not reached an age when Medicare will provide benefits. This legislation is based on the NAIC Model Law which is designed to address this need.

We believe that fraudulent claims against insurers not only affect insurance companies, but also affect the consumer because such claims ultimately result in increased rates. The Department will therefore propose the establishment of a fraud division in the Department of Insurance which will have investigative and peace officer authority and will be involved exclusively in the investigation of fraudulent insurance claims.

The Department is responsible for periodic examinations of all domestic insurance companies and participates in examinations of some foreign insurers. These examinations are conducted by examiners who are under contract with the Department and are paid from a revolving fund which is funded exclusively by charges to the insurance company being examined. The Department is currently faced with two issues related to the employment relationship with these examiners, one involving the payment of unemployment benefits, the other the payment of withholding tax. The Department will propose that the examiners become employees of the Department and that all considerations, such as withholding of taxes, workers' compensation coverage, health benefits, and retirement, will apply to these examiners. It will also be proposed that these examiners continue to be paid from a fund based upon charges to the insurance companies for these examinations.

There are currently several states which require agents to segregate policyholder premiums from other accounts, including personal accounts, of agents. The Department continues to receive complaints regarding agents who either intentionally or inadvertently retain policyholder premiums for various reasons. We believe that legislation either requiring the establishment of a trust fund or prohibiting the commingling of policyholder funds with an agent's funds will eliminate many of the complaints.

In 1980 the Legislature enacted A.R.S. § 20-1342.02 which permits the Director to disapprove health insurance policies where the premium charged is not reasonable in relation to the benefits provided. The Department believes that that legislation would be more meaningful if certain minimum standards for health insurance were adopted.

The National Association of Insurance Commissioners has adopted a uniform law on credit for reinsurance. This law establishes standards for determining whether credit should be allowed for reinsurance agreements in considering the financial condition and solvency of insurance companies.

The Department is also considering general "housekeeping" amendments which would update the insurance code. Most of our insurance laws were enacted in 1954 and for the most part have remained unchanged, in spite of changing times, for the last thirty years.

RE: 1984 ARIZONA INSURANCE LEGISLATION

The 1984 Regular Session of the Arizona Legislature has recently concluded. Several significant measures were enacted during this last legislative session. Accordingly, I thought it would be useful to briefly summarize the major components of the newly enacted insurance legislation. This summary is not intended to be an exhaustive listing or analysis of the insurance bills that became law; rather, the intent here is to describe the main areas where substantive changes in insurance regulatory requirements took place. This circular letter should not be considered as a binding interpretation of the legislation discussed herein. Indeed, I would encourage all interested persons to obtain an exact copy of the particular legislation of interest by contacting either the Department of Insurance or the Secretary of State's office.

The principal insurance legislation is as follows (reference is to the House or Senate bill number as enacted):

> SB 1082. Life Care Facilities.
> This enactment makes technical changes to the law regarding life care facilities. A feasibility study requirement must be made based upon an eight-year projection. The lien on the property owned by the facility can be limited to that portion of the property on which the facility is sited. The law permits that the first five years of operation of a life care facility may result in operating losses; however, the ratio of assets to liabilities must increase every year so that at the end of the sixth year the assets of a facility exceed its liabilities.

SB 1274. Ambulance and Fire Protection Service Contracts.

This bill exempts such contracts from regulation by the Department of Insurance; however, it specifically authorizes the Director of the Department of Health Services to require a bond relating to the sale of ambulance service contracts.

HB 2115. Selling Insurance When a License is Suspended or Revoked.

This measure makes it a Class 5 felony for anyone to knowingly sell insurance during the period of time that the individual's license has been suspended or revoked by the Department.

HB 2116. Insurance Administrators.

This bill amends key provisions of the current insurance administrator's law. The new sections require that insurers notify the Director of any change or cancellation in the agreement with an administrator. Further, the law gives the Director an opportunity to examine the books and records of an administrator and to require the administrator to file a quarterly financial statement. Administrators will also be required to possess a bond for the protection of both policyholders and insurers. Finally, the amendments prohibit any financial interest between the administrator and any insurer, agent or broker.

HB 2397. Prepaid Legal Insurance.

This law amends existing requirements relating to prepaid legal insurance corporations. The measure increases the deposit requirement to $500,000; it also increases the capital requirement to $600,000. The law exempts persons selling prepaid legal insurance from being licensed by the Department; however, the Director is empowered to impose substantial civil penalties of $100,000 for each willful misrepresentation and $10,000 for each negligent misrepresentation in connection with the sale of prepaid legal insurance contracts.

Re: 1984 Arizona Insurance Legislation
May 23, 1984

SB 1088. Mass Marketed Life and Health Insurance.
This new law requires that an insurer offering life or health insurance coverage through a mass marketing medium must first file the policy and all advertising material with the Department prior to its being used. At present, mass marketed insurance is generally sold by insurers through trusts that are established outside the State of Arizona and, thus, not subject to direct regulation by the Department. The new law subjects these trusts to Department regulation regarding their policies and advertising material. Additionally, the Director is empowered to disapprove any mass marketed life or health insurance policy if he finds that the premiums are unreasonable in relation to the benefits provided.

SB 1090. Bail Bond Agents.
This measure requires each bail bond agent to maintain a bond in the amount of $10,000; to give receipts for collateral and premiums received in connection with bail bond transactions; and to maintain a daily bond register and related documents. The law prescribes certain actions and conduct and requires that each bail bond agent submit to and pass a written examination.

HB 2012. Privilege or Use Taxes.
This law specifically prohibits cities, towns, counties and other political subdivisions from imposing privilege or use taxes on the policies or premiums of insurance brokers and agents.

HB 2121. Health Care Service Organization Plan for Insolvency.
This new subsection requires that the plan for insolvency for health care service organizations meets certain criteria, including an actuarial statement that the plan rates are adequate to support the proposed benefits.

HB 2399. Separate Accounts.
The bill amends the insurer investment laws to permit amounts allocated to separate accounts to be invested in common stocks. It also permits insurers to make deposits in branches of foreign banks located in the United States.

Hopefully, the foregoing provides a useful overview of the new insurance legislation recently enacted by the 36th Legislature. All new laws will take effect on August 3, 1984. I would like to acknowledge the help and interest of the respective insurance committees of the Legislature, the Senate Commerce and Labor Committee and the House Banking and Insurance Committee in passing this legislation. Both Senator Jacque Steiner, Chairman of the Senate Commerce and Labor Committee, and Representative Cal Holman, Chairman of the House Banking and Insurance Committee, assisted in overseeing the passage of several of these key measures. This was a productive year that saw the enactment of significant insurance legislation designed to improve the regulation of this important business in Arizona.
